

Airplains Refueling module

- Fuel registration by serial numbers, certificates, density or customs procedures
- Automated calculation of customs and excise taxes upon confirmation of document in the system
- Customs declarations and registrations log
- Fuel accounting at stock by kilograms and further recalculation into liters or gallons upon fueling in correlation to fuel density and temperature
- Touch screen on-board computers installation at fueling vehicles for data entering
- On-board computers remote connection to serve for data exchange and transfer
- Receipts preparation and printing from on-board computers
- Support of various payment methods

